

Lead Team is an elite group of 6-8 student leaders, sponsored by the Office of Student Involvement, that serve as peer leadership educators for the students at Florida Gulf Coast University. This peer consultation group seeks to provide programs, services, and activities that:

- Engage students in leadership development, training and education
- Encourage student involvement
- Foster relationships amongst campus organizations

Mission

The “Lead Team” is a service-oriented board devoted to enhancing the potential of student organizations within the FGCU community by providing resources, consultations, and training workshops that will provide and build upon a solid leadership foundation.

The Lead Team is a campus outsource for leadership development, training, and education. The lead team is comprised of student leaders with a vast array of expertise and experiences. These members all hold a common bond of being change agents for our campus, the community, and world. Members of the Lead Team are juniors and seniors that have an abundance of experiences in campus leadership programs and activities, student organizations, and community involvement. As a “Lead Team” member, one will develop their personal leadership and program planning skills, get offered the opportunity to meet and collaborate with fellow student leaders, and have the chance to help develop the next generation of student leaders at Florida Gulf Coast University.
